As anticipated the Governor released an executive order for “stay at home” for Illinois residents.

This order becomes effective at 5:00 PM Saturday March 21st, 2020.

The order requires all individuals currently living in the State of Illinois to stay at home or their place of residence. Individuals may only leave their residence to perform essential activities. Remember this is voluntary compliance. Under the order essential activities are: for health and safety; for necessary supplies and services; for outdoor activity; for certain types of work and to take care of others.

Essential Business and Operations, include stores that sell groceries, food production and agriculture; organizations that provide charitable and social services; media; gas stations and businesses needed for transportation; financial institutions; hardware and supply stores; critical trades; mail, post, shipping, logistics and delivery services; educational institutions (for the purpose of facilitating distance learning); laundry services; restaurants for off premises consumption; supplies to work from home; supplies for essential businesses and operations; transportation; home- based care and services; residential facilities and shelters; professional services; day care centers for employees exempted by this order; manufacturing, distribution and supply chain for critical products and industries; critical labor union functions; hotels and motels; and funeral services.

Essential businesses and operations are mandated to take proactive measures in maintaining social distancing. These measures may include, where possible: designation six-foot distance; providing hand sanitizer and sanitizing products; separating operation hours for vulnerable populations; and, providing online remote access for employees.
